I'm not sure if I've reached the dreaded middle books that many people found to be tedious, but I'm still not bored myself. On the other hand, I can see where people might have lost patience with this book because some plot threads seemed to be at a standstill for most of it. I still felt like the story continued to move forward, though, and there were interesting things that happened., Prologue: Lightnings -- High Chasaline -- The butcher's yard -- Hill of the Golden Dawn -- Into Caithien -- A broken crown -- Old fear, and new fear ----
