EDMONTON MANUAL OSCE PDF - Search results, Proportional representation (PR) characterizes electoral systems by which divisions into an electorate are reflected proportionately into the elected body. If n% of the electorate support a particular political party, then roughly n% of seats will be won by that party. The essence of such systems is that all votes contribute to the result: not just a plurality, or a bare majority, of them., This is a list of close election results at national and state level.. It lists results that have been decided by a margin of less than 1 vote in 1000 (a margin of victory of less than 0.1%). To provide context, after the first table is another table showing the distribution of winning margins in different areas., After being taken down twice by Blogger within a single week, we got the message: Itâ€™s Time To Go.
