POLITICAL ECONOMY OF EDUCATION IN INDIA, Bloom's taxonomy is a set of three hierarchical models used to classify educational learning objectives into levels of complexity and specificity. The three lists cover the learning objectives in cognitive, affective and sensory domains. The cognitive domain list has been the primary focus of most traditional education and is frequently used to structure curriculum learning objectives ..., Self-Efficacy and Social Cognitive Theory. If you want to learn about Prof. Bandura's social cognitive theory, you probably ought not rely on the (often flawed) translations and brief theoretical soundbites provided by others., If the teacher taught but the student did not learn, then this is an opportunity of reflection for the teacher.

Teaching a diverse array of students with disparate learning styles, behavioral problems and varied multiple intelligence categories can be challenging at times., So you want to create a professional vita. Since you are in need of such a document, I will take the risk of assuming that you are relatively new what some like to call "the academy.", Lawrence Kohlberg's stages of moral development constitute an adaptation of a psychological theory originally conceived by the Swiss psychologist Jean Piaget.
Kohlberg began work on this topic while a psychology graduate student at the University of Chicago in 1958 and expanded upon the theory throughout his life.. The theory holds that moral reasoning, the basis for ethical behavior, has six ...
