1, 4 Dec 2009, This was the textbook for my fall class, and it's a remarkably thorough consideration of how we look at things in the 21st century. Not an easy read, by any means, and some chapters, where Foucault, Lacan, and other 20th-century theorists are swirled together to make a point make it challenging reading to those who may not be familiar with the relevant theorists., Practices
