Instructor: Stewart Donaldson, PhD.

Description: Every time we try something new, we often ask ourselves, "Is it better than similar items? What makes it good? What is its value?"

This process of valuing may be applied to anything from purchasing a computer, to judging the quality of a school curriculum, or an organization's training program. Evaluation is a systematic determination of a subject's merit, worth and significance, using criteria governed by a set of standards. It can assist an organization, program, project or any other intervention or initiative to assess any aim, realisable concept/proposal, or any alternative, to help in decision-making; or to ascertain the degree of achievement or value in regard to the aim and ...
