procedures 1), and justifying my use of the term. Admittedly, I sometimes have found it difficult to use the term 'method' with more recent innovations, such as content-based instruction and cooperative learning., principles into practice based upon his or her interpretation and experience. I will introduce each method. Next you will observe the method in practice. Afterwards, I will point out some of the salient principles and techniques associated with each method.
The lessons are meant only to introduce you to these methods., TITLE: Techniques and SUMMARY The intended audience of this volume is a "teacher educator" interested in developing a repertoire of language teaching methods., The meaning of the target language is made clear by translating it into the students' native language. The language that is used in class is mostly the students' native language. 9 How is evaluation accomplished? Written tests in which students are asked to translate from their native language to the target language or vice versa are often used.,
